Pearl Shangkuan
GUEST CONDUCTOR

Dr. Pearl Shangkuan is described as one whose “work as a conductor, educator, and scholar is celebrated globally, and her leadership continues to inspire musicians and choral communities worldwide.” She is a highly sought-after conductor, lecturer and clinician who has and continues to lead performances and workshops on six continents. She is currently the National Vice President of the American Choral Directors Association (ACDA), having previously served on the Board of Directors of Chorus America, as well as ACDA central region president and ACDA Michigan state president. The Chorus Director of the Grand Rapids Symphony since 2004, she is Professor Emerita of Music at Calvin University in Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Appointed in 2022 as the Editor of Hinshaw Music, a major choral music publisher in North America, she also has a signature choral series with earthsongs and is the music editor of the Calvin Institute of Christian Worship choral series published by GIA. She has conducted many times at Carnegie Hall and other major concert halls in the US and was an invited guest lecturer at the World Symposium for Choral Music held in Seoul, South Korea in 2014. Her guest engagements regularly take her to Europe, Asia, and across North America. In the previous season, she also had return guest engagements in New Zealand, South America, and South Africa.
